FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

18. On the morning of Sunday, January 16, 2005 at approximately 10:00a.m., Ms. White was in her home with several family members, friends, and other visitors when two (2) employees, agents, representatives, members and/or officers, who identified themselves as being officers with the SOUTHAMPTON TOWN POLICE DEPARTMENT approached to MS. WHITE'S home.

19. Among these two officers was Defendant JOHN DOE 1.

20. The SOUTHAMPTON TOWN POLICE DEPARTMENT officers (including JOHN DOE) alleged that they were at Ms. White's home pursuant to a warrant that had allegedly been issued for her son. The officers did not display the alleged arrest warrant that the officers claimed they had.

21. Upon knocking on Ms. White's door, the officers advised Ms. White that they were looking for her son. Although the officers claimed that they had an arrest warrant for MS. WHITE'S son, the officers never showed the alleged warrant to MS. WHITE.

22. When MS. WHITE asked the officers about the specifics of the arrest warrant, the officers advised MS. WHITE that the arrest warrant was issued because her son "failed to answer his mail." The officers provided MS. WHITE with no additional information.

23. MS. WHITE truthfully and politely advised the officers that her son was not there at that time.

24. The officers did not believe MS. WHITE'S representation that her son was not at the premises. The officers then asked MS. WHITE if they could enter her home to verify that her son was, in fact, not home.

25. MS. WHITE asked the officers if they had a search warrant to enter the premises. The officers answered "yes."

26. MS. WHITE then advised the officers that she would let them into her home to search for her son if the officers displayed the search warrant, which the officers claimed they had at the time.

27. The officers refused to display the alleged search warrant and/or arrest warrant. Instead, the officers began to insist that MS. WHITE grant them access to the home so that the officers could search for her son.

28. Again, MS. WHITE advised the officers that she would not let them into her home to search the home until the officers displayed the alleged warrant(s) and allow her to examine same. The officers still refused to show any warrants.

29. Instead, the officers began to pressure Ms. White and attempted to coerce MS. WHITE into letting them inside her home to search for her son.

30. At the time, Ms. White had guests and other family members inside her home. As Ms. White turned her attention away from the officers at the door to make a comment to her guests/family, the Defendant officer JOHN DOE 1 managed to slip pass Ms. White, who's attention was directed away from the officer at the door, and forced his way into her home. JOHN DOE 2 remained by the door.

31. Defendant Officer JOHN DOE 1 entered MS. WHITE'S home without displaying the alleged search and/or arrest warrants.

32. Defendant Officer JOHN DOE 1 knowingly and intentionally entered MS. WHITE'S home without displaying the alleged search and/or arrest warrants, despite MS. WHITE'S clear and unequivocal request to see the alleged warrant(s).

33. Defendant Officer JOHN DOE 1 knowingly and intentionally entered and trespassed into WHITE'S home without justification, in fact or in law, and without MS. WHITE'S consent.

34. Defendant Officer JOHN DOE 1 then proceeded to walk through Ms. White's home in search of her son.

35. At all times, Defendant Officer JOHN DOE 1 was aware that MS. WHITE did not consent to or approve of his entrance and search of her home. Yet the officer proceeded to enter and search Ms. White's home despite his knowledge that MS. WHITE dissented.

36. When MS. WHITE turned towards the door to continue her conversation with Defendant Officer JOHN DOE 1, she noticed that the officer was already in her home and was walking quickly towards the bedroom area.

37. MS. WHITE then turned around and followed Defendant Officer JOHN DOE 1 as he forayed through her home.

38. As MS. WHITE followed Defendant Officer JOHN DOE 1, Ms. White constantly raised her objections to the officer's entrance and search of her home without displaying the warrant(s) that he claimed he possessed.

39. In addition, Ms. White continually demanded Defendant Officer JOHN DOE 1 to display the alleged warrant(s).

40. Despite MS. WHITE'S continuing objections, Defendant Officer JOHN DOE 1 ignored Ms. White's requests. In fact, Defendant Officer JOHN DOE 1 refused to speak to MS. WHITE as he walked through and searched her home. Instead, Defendant Officer JOHN DOE 1 continued his unwarranted and unbridled search/intrusion.

41. Defendant Officer JOHN DOE 1 arrived at a bedroom and proceeded to attempt to open the bedroom door. Upon information and belief, Defendant Officer JOHN DOE 1 could not have known who the room belonged to.

42. At that time, MS. WHITE stood in front of the bedroom door, with her phone in hand, and called 911. At the same time, MS. WHITE, continued to protest Defendant Officer JOHN DOE 1'S unlawful entry and search and told him to "show the warrant now or leave [her] house."

43. Upon information and belief, as MS. WHITE was attempting to call 911, the officer, pulled out a device and blocked her phone call and/or called ahead to the police station to have them disregard MS. WHITE'S call. As a result, MS. WHITE'S phone call was ignored, dropped, and/or disregarded by the SOUTHAMPTON TOWN POLICE DEPARTMENT.

44. MS. WHITE attempted to call 911 a second time. Once again, Defendant Officer JOHN DOE 1 pulled out the device and blocked her call and/or called ahead to the police station to have them disregard MS. WHITE'S call. As a result, MS. WHITE'S phone call was ignored, dropped, and/or disregarded by the SOUTHAMPTON TOWN POLICE DEPARTMENT again.

45. MS. WHITE asked the officer to "stop blocking [her 911] calls." Defendant Officer JOHN DOE 1 did not respond.

46. While MS. WHITE was making her third 911 call, Defendant Officer JOHN DOE 1 physically pushed MS. WHITE aside.

47. Defendant Officer JOHN DOE 1 physically pushed MS. WHITE aside and opened the door to the bedroom as Ms. White stood helpless.

48. Defendant Officer JOHN DOE 1 did not enter the bedroom. Upon information and belief, the officer did a visual search of the bedroom while standing in the doorway. Meanwhile, MS. WHITE continued to voice her objections.

49. As MS. WHITE truthfully indicated to the officer, her son was not present at the home. Defendant Officer JOHN DOE 1 then turned around and began to walk towards the living room area while MS. WHITE followed him.

50. As Defendant Officer JOHN DOE 1 walked towards the livingroom area, MS. WHITE advised Defendant Officer JOHN DOE 1 that she was going to use her cell phone to place another 911 call in order to attempt to prevent the officer from blocking her call again.

51. As MS. WHITE entered her bedroom to locate her cell phone, Defendant Officer JOHN DOE 1 turned around and followed Ms. White into her bedroom.

52. Defendant Officer JOHN DOE 1 then approached MS. WHITE and got very close to her as she attempted to dial 911 in her bedroom.

53. Defendant Officer JOHN DOE 1 then raised and pointed his finger in MS. WHITE'S face and forcefully proclaimed: "If you ever call us [the police] again, we will not come to help you!" Upon information and belief, these were the first words spoken to MS. WHITE, by Defendant Officer JOHN DOE 1, after he entered her home.

54. Defendant Officer JOHN DOE 1'S actions, threats, and aggressive tone of voice caused Ms. White to fear for her safety. Suddenly MS. WHITE, who adamantly and continually protested the officer's entry and search of her home was shocked and speechless. MS. WHITE gave no response.

55. Defendant Officer JOHN DOE 1 then turned and, upon information and belief, exited Ms. White's home. Defendant Officer JOHN DOE 1 regrouped with the other officer, who stood outside, and waited outside in front of MS. WHITE'S home.

56. When MS. WHITE was able to recover from the shock caused to her by Defendant Officer JOHN DOE 1'S actions and statement, Ms. White proceeded to try to call the police again.

57. However, this time, Ms. White was forced to place a call to the New York State Police because Defendant Officer JOHN DOE 1 had just told her that the SOUTHAMPTON TOWN POLICE "[would] not come to help [her]." When MS. WHITE advised dispatch at the State Police about what had just occurred, the State police advised MS. WHITE that there was nothing they could do.

58. As a result of stress caused by this incident, Ms. White, who was 69 years of age at the time, became weak and began to experience sharp chest pains and back.

59. MS. WHITE then decided to go to the hospital.

60. MS. WHITE went outside to get to her car, in order to go to the hospital. Upon arriving outside, MS. WHITE notice Defendant Officer JOHN DOE 1, who was standing in front of her home with another officer.

61. While outside, MS. WHITE asked Defendant Officer JOHN DOE 1 for his badge number, to which Defendant Officer JOHN DOE 1 replied "kiss my ass!"

62. Ms. White was later taken to Central Suffolk Hospital, which kept her overnight for observation. Central Suffolk hospital transferred Ms. White (by ambulance) to Winthrop Hospital, located in Nassau County. MS. WHITE was then admitted into Winthrop Hospital's cardiac unit, where she remained for four days.

63. Upon information and belief, MS. WHITE was diagnosed with, and suffered, a heart attack and other illnesses as a result of Defendant Officer JOHN DOE 1'S intentional, reckless, and/or negligent actions.

64. Upon information and belief, MS. WHITE had no heart problems/conditions prior to Defendant Officer JOHN DOE 1's actions as alleged in this Complaint.

65. Subsequently, MS. WHITE was forced to endure several follow-up visits with different physicians, who monitored her heart condition. In addition, MS. WHITE was forced to take prescription medication(s).

66. A few days later, MS. WHITE sought to file a report against Defendant Officers JOHN DOE'S 1 and 2. However, MS. WHITE was nervous and felt that she could not go to the SOUTHAMPTON TOWN POLICE DEPARTMENT to file a complaint because the Defendant Officer JOHN DOE 1 told her that the Southampton Police "[would] not come to help [her]."

67. Instead of going to the police station, MS. WHITE was forced to go to the TOWN OF SOUTHAMPTON'S Village Hall for assistance and to make a report.

68. Eventually, MS. WHITE was directed back to the SOUTHAMPTON TOWN POLICE DEPARTMENT who advised her that they would send an investigating officer to her home so that she could explain her story and make a written statement/complaint against the Defendant Officers.

69. MS. WHITE was visited by Defendant LIEUTENANT JOHN JAMES, pursuant to her request to lodge a complaint against Defendant Officers JOHN DOES 1 and 2.

70. At the time that LT. JAMES went to MS. WHITE'S home to take her complaint, MS. WHITE was joined by a witness, who was present at the time that Defendant Officers John Doe's invaded MS. WHITE'S home.

71. LT. JAMES asked MS. WHITE and her witness to make written statements. MS. WHITE and her witness did make said written statements.

72. The written statement of MS. WHITE'S witness corroborated MS. WHITE'S account of the events. MS. WHITE also advised LT. JAMES that there were other people/witnesses in her home at the time who could provide additional corroboration and information if necessary. LT. JAMES did not ask for these witness' information(s), nor did he bother to attempt to call these witnesses for any additional information.

73. LT. JAMES then took the written statements and advised MS. WHITE that he would “investigate her complaint.”

74. LT. JAMES did not investigate MS. WHITE’S or her witness’ complaints/statements.

75. Instead, LT. JAMES totally disregarded MS. WHITE’S and her witness’ reports and accounts of the event. In addition, LT. JAMES never sought out or interviewed the witnesses that were present in MS. WHITE’S home on the date of the incident.

76. LT. JAMES then wrote a letter MS. WHITE, which justified the wrongful actions of Defendant Officers JOHN DOES 1 and 2. In this letter, LT. JAMES also sought to place blame on MS. WHITE. In this Letter, LT. JAMES intentionally omitted the names of the officers in further attempt to conceal their identities from Ms. White.

77. In addition to placing blame on MS. WHITE, LT. JAMES also supported and bolstered numerous false statements made by JOHN DOES 1 and 2 with regard to the incident. LT. JAMES then concluded by stating, summarily, that his alleged “findings in this matter do not support any police misconduct.”

78. Upon information and belief, LT. JAMES never intended to, nor did he, conduct a good faith investigation into the incident.

79. Upon information and belief, LT. JAMES went to MS. WHITE’S home to take statements as a matter of course and never intended to do anything further with regard to these reports/statements. Instead, LT. JAMES sought to, and did, cover-up the wrongful actions of JOHN DOES 1 and 2. Although LT. JAMES insisted that alleged warrants existed, copies of said warrants were never produced for MS. WHITE (or anyone else) to see or verify. In addition, LT. JAMES intentionally refused to provide the names, badge numbers, and/or identities of JOHN DOES 1 and 2 with intent to conceal their identities from MS. WHITE.

80. In addition, LT. JAMES justified the wrongful actions of Defendant “DOES” stating that the officers “reasonably believed that a black male wearing a hooded sweatshirt and entering your residence on that date in time was in fact your son . . .” However, on the date of the incident, the officers never mentioned anything about an alleged “black male wearing a hooded sweatshirt,” nor did the officers ask MS. WHITE to verify the identity of said alleged individual.

81. The officer’s alleged site of a “black male wearing a hooded sweatshirt,” which the officers did not and could not identify as MS. WHITE’S son, did not give the officers cause to justify their unlawful and un-consented entry into MS. WHITE’S home.

82. By failing to investigate JOHN DOES 1 and 2’s actions, while supporting same, LT. JAMES ratified and condoned their unlawful conducts and sought to deprive MS. WHITE of a good faith investigation.

83. Upon information and belief, Defendants TOWN OF SOUTHAMPTON, SOUTHAMPTON TOWN POLICE DEPARTMENT never followed up on MS. WHITE’S Complaints, nor did they supervise the investigation of the matter. Instead, Defendants TOWN OF SOUTHAMPTON and SOUTHAMPTON TOWN POLICE DEPARTMENT allowed the summary investigation and did nothing further in an attempt to sweep the incident under the rug.

84. Defendants TOWN OF SOUTHAMPTON and SOUTHAMPTON TOWN POLICE DEPARTMENT supported and ratified the unlawful conduct of its Officers JOHN DOES and the subsequent cover-up of LT. JAMES.

AS AND FOR A FIRST COUNT
42 U.S.C. § 1983 (against all Defendants)

85. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs 1 through 84 of this Complaint with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

86. The Defendants, their agents, employees and servants, had no justifiable cause to enter and search MS. WHITE’S home against MS. WHITE’S expressed will.

87. Upon information and belief, the alleged warrant that the officers claimed they had for MS. WHITE’S son was for an alleged violation (as opposed to a crime) that was allegedly committed by MS. WHITE'S son weeks/months before the officers attempted to execute the alleged warrant.

88. The Defendant officers' search for MS. WHITE'S son was not an emergency or an exigent circumstance that would warrant an entry into the home of a third person (MS. WHITE) without a valid search warrant. Although the Defendant officers claimed that they had an arrest warrant, the Defendant officers never attempted to show or display same.

89. The Defendant officers made no reasonable attempt, whatsoever, to show their alleged warrant(s) to MS. WHITE.

90. The Defendant officers made no reasonable attempt to prove to MS. WHITE that a valid warrant (of any kind) existed, despite MS. WHITE'S numerous requests.

91. The Defendants, their agents, employees and servants, had no justifiable cause to enter and search MS. WHITE'S home against MS. WHITE'S expressed will, without first procuring a valid search warrant.

92. The Defendant officers had no warrant(s) of any kind.

93. The wrongful stop, search, seizure, trespass, harassment, assault, battery, abuse of authority, abuse of process, threats and other wrongful acts conducted against MS. WHITE by the collective Defendants, their agents, employees and servants, were committed under color of law, customs, and statutes of the State of New York.

94. Under color of law, the Defendants, their agents, employees and servants deprived the MS. WHITE of her Fourth, Fifth, and Fourteenth Amendment rights to protection from unlawful search and seizure, Equal Protection and Due Process.

95. The Defendants' wrongful actions in refusing to conduct a proper investigation into MS. WHITE'S complaints and refusing to interview MS. WHITE'S witnesses was an attempt to cover up the wrongful stop, search, seizure, trespass, harassment, assault, battery, abuse of authority, abuse of process, threats and other wrongful acts which was inflicted by the Defendants against MS. WHITE.

96. The wrongful stop, search, seizure, trespass, harassment, assault, battery, abuse of authority, abuse of process, threats, negligent, grossly negligent, and other wrongful acts constitutes a violation of MS. WHITE'S rights, secured by the Fourth Amendment to the United States Constitution, to be free from unreasonable searches and seizures. Such actions were negligent, grossly negligent, reckless, unreasonable and unauthorized, as the defendants had a duty not to subject MS. WHITE to wrongful stops, searches, seizures, trespasses, harassment, assault, battery, abuse of authority, abuse of process, threats and other wrongful acts.

97. The Defendants, their agents, employees and servants acted under color of law to deny MS. WHITE of her constitutional rights to due process and freedom from unreasonable search and seizure, by wrongfully stopping, searching, seizing, trespassing, harassing, assaulting, battering, abusing authority, abusing process, threatening and violating other due process guarantees secured to MS. WHITE by the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments of the United States Constitution.

98. Such abuse of process was continued by the defendants, their agents, servants and employees in their refusal to adequately investigate the actions of the Defendant Officers and by intentionally failing to properly review and investigate the actions of defendant officers and officials for their actions against the MS. WHITE.

99. Such abuse of process was continued by the defendants, their agents, servants and employees in their refusal to adequately investigate the actions of the Defendant Officers and by intentionally failing to properly review and investigate the actions of defendant officers and officials while attempting to justify and cover-up the Defendant officer's wrongful acts.

100. As a consequence of Defendants' wrongful actions, negligent/grossly negligent behavior, and violation of State and Federal laws, MS. WHITE was subject to great physical mental and emotional harm; was made to suffer great pain and suffering; was subjected to great fear, terror, personal humiliation and degradation; and continues to suffer pain and mental and emotional distress as a result of the aforesaid unlawful conduct of Defendants, their agents, employees, and servants.

101. In addition, Plaintiff (who is elderly) has been forced to believe that she is not protected and/or cannot go to the SOUTHAMPTON TOWN POLICE DEPARTMENT in the event that she requires police protection/service/assistance.

102. That by reason of the foregoing, Plaintiff has been damaged in the sum of Two MILLION DOLLARS ($2,000,000.00).

AS AND FOR A SECOND COUNT

42 U.S.C. § 1983

Municipal Liability

(Against Defendants TOWN OF SOUTHAMPTON & SOUTHAMPTON TOWN POLICE DEPARTMENT)

103. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs 1 through 102 of this complaint with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

104. In actively inflicting and failing to prevent the above stated abuses incurred by plaintiff, the Defendants acted unreasonably, recklessly, grossly negligent, and negligently in failing to exercise the slightest amount of due care to secure and protect the civil and constitutional rights of MS. WHITE against illegal search and seizure, physical abuse, trespass and other due process violations. Said rights are guaranteed to MS. WHITE by 42 U.S.C. §§ 1983, 1985, and by the Fourth, Fifth, and Fourteenth Amendment of the Constitution.

105. Both before and after January 16, 2004, the TOWN OF SOUTHAMPTON, and SOUTHAMPTON TOWN POLICE DEPARTMENT, has permitted, tolerated and encouraged a pattern and practice of unjustified, unreasonable and illegal abuses of Black persons (including MS. WHITE) by its police officers.

106. Although such police conduct was improper, said incidents were covered up by the TOWN OF SOUTHAMPTON and SOUTHAMPTON TOWN POLICE DEPARTMENT, its agents, employees and servants, including Defendant LIEUTENANT JOHN JAMES by official claims that the officers' apparent wrongful actions were justified and proper and by using false statements and other false evidence to sustain their otherwise unsupportable justification(s).

107. Said charges and official claims have been fully backed by the TOWN OF SOUTHAMPTON and SOUTHAMPTON TOWN POLICE DEPARTMENT, which has repeatedly and unreasonably sided with the abuse of persons so effected in nearly all cases, despite vast evidence of wrongdoing (and prior negligent/grossly negligent actions) by its officers against minority persons, including Plaintiff herein.

108. Additionally, the TOWN OF SOUTHAMPTON and SOUTHAMPTON TOWN POLICE DEPARTMENT has systematically failed to identify the improper abuse, misuse, violative acts and brutality by police officers and officials, while further failing to subject such officers and officials to discipline, closer supervision, or restraint.

109. Upon information and belief, specific systemic flaws in the TOWN OF SOUTHAMPTON's and SOUTHAMPTON TOWN POLICE DEPARTMENT's misconduct review process include but are not limited to the following:

- a. Preparing reports regarding investigations of unwarranted incidents as routine point-by-point justification of the police officers actions regardless of whether such actions are justified;
- b. Police officers investigating incidents systematically fail to credit testimony by non-police officer witnesses and uncritically rely on reports by police officers involved in the incident;
- c. Police officers investigating incidents fail to include in their reports relevant factual information which would tend to contradict the statements of the police officer involved;
- d. Supervisory police officers exonerate police officers for misconduct and abuse of process before the investigation of the incident by the police department has been completed;
- f. hastily accepting the polices' above- as provided information from police reports regarding abuses and civil rights infringements, despite strong evidence to suggest that the police reports are inaccurate, untruthful, and meant to conceal blatant police misconduct.

110. Said cover-up by the defendants, TOWN OF SOUTHAMPTON and SOUTHAMPTON TOWN POLICE DEPARTMENT, was executed in this case, where the defendant, its agents, employees and servants failed to sufficiently investigate the allegations and statements of Complainants and their witnesses, but instead acted under color of statute to knowingly, recklessly and/or negligently impose false facts and statements against Plaintiff..

111. By permitting and assisting such a pattern of police misconduct, the Defendants, TOWN OF SOUTHAMPTON acted under color of custom and policy to condone, encourage and promote the deprivation of Plaintiff's Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendment rights; to wit the Defendants SOUTHAMPTON TOWN POLICE DEPARTMENT, "JOHN DOES" 1-2, and LIEUTENANT JOHN JAMES were encouraged by the TOWN OF SOUTHAMPTON, to believe that their actions against the Plaintiff would be accepted without impunity, just as these actions have been so accepted to date.

112. As a consequence of the Defendants TOWN OF SOUTHAMPTON's systemic practice, pattern, and custom of intentionally promoting and supporting officers' and official violations of 42 U.S.C. § 1983, Plaintiff was deprived of her freedom, intruded upon, and physically and emotionally harmed, to the extent of which she suffered from a heart attack, sleeplessness, anxiety, insomnia, stress and related emotional distress, which required and still requires medical attention.

113. As a proximate cause of the collective TOWN OF SOUTHAMPTON's custom and policy of supporting and effectively promoting the very same police abuses which occurred against Plaintiff, said plaintiff was subjected to great fear, personal humiliation and degradation, with wanton disregard for the serious harm and damage done to the physical and emotional well being of the Plaintiff.

114. In addition, Plaintiff (who is elderly) has been forced to believe that she is not protected and/or cannot go to the SOUTHAMPTON TOWN POLICE DEPARTMENT in the event that she requires police protection/service/assistance.

115. That by reason of the foregoing, Plaintiff has been damaged in the sum of Two Million Dollars ($2,000,000.00).

AND AS FOR A THIRD COUNT

42 U.S.C. § 1983 ALTERNATE LIABILITY OF THE TOWN OF SOUTHAMPTON, SOUTHAMPTON TOWN POLICE DEPARTMENT

116. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs 1 through 115 of this Complaint with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

117. Defendants TOWN OF SOUTHAMPTON and SOUTHAMPTON TOWN POLICE DEPARTMENT lacked any cause to stop, search, seize, trespass, harass, assault, batter, abuse authority, abuse process, and/or threaten MS. WHITE.

118. Defendants TOWN OF SOUTHAMPTON and SOUTHAMPTON TOWN POLICE DEPARTMENT are thus directly liable for the constitutional violations that Plaintiff DOROTHY WHITE suffered, in that Defendants TOWN OF SOUTHAMPTON and SOUTHAMPTON TOWN POLICE DEPARTMENT, hired and retained officers and detectives who, acting within the course and scope of power and authority conveyed to the officers and detectives by Defendants TOWN OF SOUTHAMPTON and SOUTHAMPTON TOWN POLICE DEPARTMENT, violated the constitutional rights of Plaintiff.

119. Plaintiff acknowledges that respondeat superior is not now a basis for TOWN OF SOUTHAMPTON's and SOUTHAMPTON TOWN POLICE DEPARTMENT's liability under existing law. Plaintiff submits that there exists a good faith argument for the modification of that rule based on the dissenting opinion of Justice Breyer in Board of County Commissioners of Bryan County, Oklahoma v. Jill Brown et al., [520 U.S. 397, 117 S.Ct. 1382 (1997)], and based upon the literature addressing this issue.

120. As a direct and proximate result of the aforesaid acts, omissions, systemic flaws, policies and customs of the defendants TOWN OF SOUTHAMPTON and SOUTHAMPTON TOWN POLICE DEPARTMENT, and the other defendants unjustifiably mistreated and abused Plaintiff. All of this was done in violation of the Plaintiff's civil and constitutional rights.

121. All of these rights are secured to Plaintiff by the provisions of the Fourth Amendment, Sixth Amendment, the due process clause of the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States and by 42 U.S.C. §§ 1983, 1985 and 1986 and the laws of the State of New York.

122. Plaintiff has suffered and will continue to suffer from physical and psychological harm, humiliation, fear, and nervousness with respect to police authority.

123. That by reason of the foregoing, Plaintiff has been placed in fear for her life/well-being. In addition, Plaintiff (who is elderly) has been forced to believe that she is not protected and/or cannot go to the SOUTHAMPTON TOWN POLICE DEPARTMENT in the event that she requires police protection/service/assistance. Accordingly, Plaintiff has been damaged in the sum of Two Million dollars ($2,000,000.00).

AS AND FOR A FOURTH COUNT
42 U.S.C. § 1985

(Against Defendants LIEUTENANT JOHN JAMES AND JOHN DOES 1 and 2)

124. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs 1 through 123 of this complaint with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

125. Defendants LIEUTENANT JOHN JAMES AND JOHN DOES 1 and 2, conspired to deprive Plaintiff of her Fourth, Fifth, and Fourteenth Amendment rights, and jointly caused such deprivation of rights by acting in concert to unlawfully stop, search, seize, trespass, harass, assault, batter, abuse authority, abuse process, and threaten Plaintiff (among other things). Said Defendants were acting, not pursuant to established rules, laws and guidelines of the Town of Southampton and/or the Southampton Town Police Department, but pursuant to their own personal motives and purposes.

126. Upon information and belief, the Defendants LIEUTENANT JOHN JAMES AND JOHN DOES 1 and 2, further deprived the Plaintiff of her due process rights; specifically by conspiring to enter and search Plaintiff's home without probable cause, investigation, or rule of law.

127. Defendants LIEUTENANT JOHN JAMES AND JOHN DOES 1 and 2 further denied the Plaintiff her Constitutional rights via a conspiracy to cover the misconduct of said officers and officials and prevent Plaintiff making and pursuing a formal complaint against the Defendant Officers for their misconduct.
